About the FDP

In present scenario of maximum lockdown due to pandemic online teaching learning has become an essential part of our life to pursue our education. Various free and paid online platforms are providing such facilities to academic Institutions. These new exciting technologies are now integral part of our life. REC, Ambedkar Nagar is happy to announce that Department of APSH is going to organize a 'Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Maximal Utilization of ICT Tools for Online Teaching-Learning Process', with sessions on creation of e-content and effective delivery of the same. The principle objective of the FDP is to sensitize the teaching fraternity of colleges and universities about the ways to start and manage online course, bolster learner engagement and some ways of doing online assessment in ICT based education.
